Senior Baccalaureate Service-Tues., May 7th at 7pm (Seniors will meet in the Bellevue chapel by 6:30pm-The chapel is located on the south side of the church closest to Dexter)-
Parents and family will sit in the sanctuary. All seniors and their families are encouraged to attend. No tickets are required. This is a GREAT opportunity to take senior pictures at Bellevue! (This will be difficult on graduation day!).

What is the Baccalaureate Service? It is a 45 minute service honoring the graduates. Seniors will wear their cap and gown and process into the sanctuary. This service is planned and conducted by the Senior Class Student Government members. The service includes the Bolton choir and the guest speaker is Mr. DeAngelo Collier, a Bolton graduate, who has graduated from Univ. of Memphis and Univ. of Mississippi and has written the book, "Breaking the Family Curse."
