Getting Ready for FAFSA! (Free Application for Federal Student Aid)

- MARK YOUR CALENDAR FOR Financial Aid Night- Workshop for seniors and their parents will be Tues., Dec. 1st from 6-7pm in the theatre. Allison Linna from Financial Resources Dept. at the University of Memphis will present FAFSA info, federal student loan info and other college financial aid resources.
- WHAT you can do right now? Get your FSA ID number and be ready for the FAFSA application, which will be online Jan. 1st 2016. Every senior must get an FSA ID and one parent must get it. Go to www.fafsa.gov and find the FSA ID link (padlock symbol) at the top of this site.

ACT LATE Registration Deadline dates-November 7-20 (Late fee added +$25)

Go to www.actstudent.org to register. Juniors need to take the December ACT!! Juniors will receive their free state ACT in April but don't let the April ACT be your first ACT test!! Seniors-The Dec. ACT is the last score that most colleges will accept for institutional scholarship eligibility!! Students (11th & 12th) may qualify for a fee waiver based on income-see your counselor.

- ACT PHOTO upload deadline- Dec. 4th- You must upload photo by deadline or you will not be able to test on Dec. 12th. After uploading, you will be able to print your ACT Admission Ticket (required for testing). You must also have a photo ID or get an ID letter from your counselor.
 - GREAT Links for ACT prep at: <http://dacbltonmath.weebly.com/links.html>

Senior and Juniors- See the attached list of Institutional Scholarships for TN Public Universities. Keep improving your ACT and GPA! These schools will award scholarships based your on 6th and 7th semester GPA on your transcript and using the ACT through the December ACT during the senior year. SENIORS must be admitted to college by December 1st for these institutional scholarships. It takes approx.. two weeks to be admitted, SO submit your application and fee (or get fee waiver from M212) AND order a transcript from M212 to be sent to college ASAP!!!
